THE 12 TRUE LEGENDS
True Legends Awards honours real life heroes. Heroes who have gone beyond simply giving and sacrificed everything for the greater good. The Telegraph has launched a series on The 12 True Legends who were feted recently for their courage and compassion. Today, we present the story of our sixth True Legend.

Jillian Haslam

She has a heritage that stretches back to the birth of a nation, but was forced to survive on charity in Kidderpore. Today, a motivational speaker, trainer, author and a millionaire, she wants to return to Calcutta and focus on charity work in India. Forever grateful to those who had nothing, but gave her everything.
